

Protecting the Jobs We Have, Creating the Jobs We Need

It's no secret that the global economic crisis is still hitting us hard. Economic recovery is slow and the gridlock in Washington isn't helping. In Connecticut, we put aside partisan differences and got things done.

The recent special session on jobs included initiatives from Democrats and Republicans. Together we're making Connecticut a better place to do business and grow jobs.

WORKING TOGETHER IN HARTFORD

A BIPARTISAN APPROACH TO CREATING JOBS

Democrats and Republicans worked on a comprehensive plan that helps small businesses by: reducing taxes; reforming regulations; streamlining the permitting process; promoting and providing incentives for brownfields redevelopment; creating more effective tax credits for job creation; and more.
